Traffic Lights At Gougar Operating

The traffic signals installed at the intersection of Gougar rd., Washington st. and U. S. 30, west of New Lenox, were placed in operation on Wednesday (Jan. 6).

One set of lights controls travel on U.S. 30; one set directs traffic flow on Gougar rd., and another set deals with traffic coming onto U.S. 30 from Washington st.

There are no arrows to give traffic right of way if turning left off of U. S. 30 onto Washington st. or turning left off of U. S. 30 to go north on Gougar. This causes traffic to pile up on U. S. 30, east and west of Gougar at certain periods of the day.

Traffic on Gougar from the south is light except for those periods when there is activity at NI-Gas Co. headquarters, when working crews leave on assignments in the morning and when the employees leave for their homes. North of U. S. 30 Gougar rd. serves as a link with U. S. 6, and also catches morning and evening traffic that makes use of Francis rd.

It is expected this junction will get a substantial increase in traffic when the access link with I-80 is completed about a mile to the east.

Burglars Loot Safe At St. Michael's

Burglars spent the best part of an hour at St. Michael's church, Orland Park, Sunday night and after failing to enter a vault in the school proceeded to empty a small safe in the rectory and made off with approximately $700 in cash and $1,500 in checks. Most of the checks were found later at Oak Lawn. One of the checks was found at Tinley Park.

From evidence left behind the burglars sat down at a desk in the rectory office and proceeded to open a number of the envelopes to make certain they were not leaving empty handed. They left some of the checks at the church office.

The money is said to have belonged to different parish organizations and the parish development committee. The burglary was discovered about 10:05 p.m. when a neighbor walking a dog saw the rectory door open and telephoned the priests. There were three priests on the second floor and there were 13 nuns in the convent next to the school but none of them heard any suspicious sounds, they told police.

Fall Frosh Crop At L-W To Take Tests Jan. 22

Grade school pupils who will become freshmen at Lincoln-Way high school next September are slated to take their tests Jan. 22.

These tests, an annual affair, will be conducted at the high school from 8 a.m. to 12 noon. Jonas R. Lashmet, director of guidance at Lincoln-Way, who has charge of the testing program, said that school buses will pick up the pupils at the grade schools in Arbury Hills, Frankfort, Lincoln Estates, Manhattan and Mokena at approximately 7:35 a.m.

Pupils from parochial schools who intend to go to Lincoln-Way should be at the public school of their community when the bus arrives there, it was stated.

There will not be a repeat date, Mr. Lashmet said, so it is important that all students who will enroll at Lincoln-Way in September, 1966, take the battery of tests.

An interpretation of the results of these tests will be given to the parents in early spring, it was explained.

The battery of tests to be given the eighth graders, Mr. Lashmet said, will be the Science Research Associates (SRA) High School Placement Test, Scores obtained from the HSPT, along with past grade school performance, will be employed to help screen, classify and place incoming freshmen. They also will help to identify specific educational strengths and weaknesses, and to aid students in choosing their high school courses realistically.

The battery will include a test of educational ability, reading achievement, arithmetic achievement and language arts achievement.

The educational ability subtest contains problems of word reasoning, arithmetical reasoning, verbal analogies and number reasoning. It is designed to measure the student's general intelligence -- his ability to do school work.

The Reading Achievement subtest measures the student's ability to understand words in context, to grasp the main idea in a passage, to make inferences and to grasp significant details.

The Arithmetic Achievement subtest measures the student's ability to add, subtract, multiply and divide--using whole numbers, fractions, percentages and decimals. The student's skill in solving simple algebraic equations and in using formulas for perimeter, area and volume is also measured.

The Language Arts Achievement subtest measures the student's skills in capitalization, punctuation and grammatical usage.

Jan. 22 is a Saturday so the tests will not interfere with regular class schedules in grade or high school.

Will Meet To Discuss Forming Junior College

A meeting to discuss the possibility of a southwest suburban junior college is expected early in January. Setting the date will be Gerald Smith, executive secretary of the new Illinois Junior College Board.

Smith has already met with several groups of southwest suburbanites who feel that new laws make a local junior college more practical and more desirable than ever.

These new laws provide federal and state funds for 75 per cent of the cost of building, and 50 per cent of the cost of operating a junior college if application is made within the next few years.

Another new law requires high school districts to pay tuition, when they are not in a junior college district, so residents can attend any junior college in Illinois. In some heavily populated areas, it is felt the cost of paying this tuition might equal or exceed the cost of having a local junior college.

There are some of the reasons why the Palos - Orland - Worth Planning Council held a seminar on junior college Oct. 20 at the Palos Country Club, and why nearly 100 people attended.

Soon after that, the Oak Lawn Rotary Club became interested in the subject, and appointed Orval Larson Jr. of Evergreen Park, to see if anyone else was interested too.

Larson found that many people were interested, especially in the Oak Lawn, Evergreen Park and Reavis high school districts. By request, he arranged a preliminary study meeting. The 30 people who attended asked Theodore Loznik of Evergreen Park to act as their chairman.

Loznik, vice - president and general counsel of Talmann, was founding president of the Evergreen Park high school board, and has been a school attorney. Appointed to serve with him are Larson for the Evergreen Park, Dr. Robert Smith for the Reavis and James Sweeney for the Oak Lawn high school districts. The law requires high school districts to go into junior college districts as units - no part can be left out.

Because the Illinois Junior College Board must approve all plans and proposals for junior colleges, these men promptly met with Gerald Smith.

Smith told them that the state board would like all southwest suburban high school districts to meet together, so that any new district would include everyone

R.I. Hikes Equipment Budget To $24-Million

The 1966 equipment acquisition program of the Rock Island Lines has been increased by over $5,100,000, to a total of $24,300,000, Jervis Langdon, Jr., chairman and president, announced today.

Mr. Langdon said the additional $5,100,000 investment covers 25 more diesel locomotives of various horsepower ratings, including both road and yard units, and 50 hopper cars of 70-ton capacity to be used for carrying wood chips.

The new locomotives, together with the 65 diesels delivered in 1965, brings to 90 the number of new units added to the Rock Island's fleet of motive power during 1965-66.

Over 5,000 new and better freight cars, including a wide variety of types and specifications and equipped with who wanted to be part of it. Also, he pointed out, several existing junior colleges formed by single high school districts, such as Thornton, LaGrange and Joliet, are seeking to expand soon in order to qualify for the new higher level of state support.

In order to insure that every community is served as well as possible, Smith suggested an early January meeting of representatives from the entire southwest suburban area. The date will be set soon.

In the meantime, individuals or groups interested in junior college are invited to contact any of these men, or Mrs. Thomas Johnston, 4709 W. 102nd st., Oak Lawn at GA 2-4173 evenings or GI 8-6650 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

LWV To Meet Next Week

The Palos - Orland League of Women Voters will conduct unit meetings next week -- at 8 p.m. Monday night in the home of Mrs. Roger Baird, 11728 Highwood Drive, Palos Park and on Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Albert Crewe, 63 Old Creek rd., Palos Park. Visitors are welcome, it was announced.

The League plans the study of state revenue and taxes and state civil rights and liberties at the January unit meetings, it was stated.

DOROTHY JEAN KLUTH - Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kluth of Lincoln Estates are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Dorothy Jean to Robert Lee McManis.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert McManis of Tinley Park.

Dorothy is a 1964 graduate of Lincoln-Way high school and is now employed by National Boulevard Bank, Chicago.

Robert is a 1961 graduate of Bremen Community high school and has served three years in the U. S. navy. He is presently employed by Electro-Motive, LaGrange.

Grade, L-W Boards Plan Dinner Meeting

Members of the grade school boards of the Lincoln-Way high school district and their administrative officials, with the members and administrative staff of the high school, will hold their annual dinner meeting next Tuesday night, Jan. 18, at Lincoln-Way.

The dinner is scheduled for 6:30. The principal speaker will be Dr. Dale Baughman, director of teacher placement at the University of Illinois. Sister M. Lorraine, head of the remedial reading program in the area under Title 1 of the future will have more leisure time for young and old they pointed out, and the ministerial group advocate a civic center for use by those interested in the arts as well as recreation projects.

Such a center would serve for public meetings as well as accommodate various organizations and groups, it was brought out.

The village board indicated interest and is expected to give the matter some study.

See Possibilities For Vets Building

Intended originally for a recreation center the sprawling frame building north of the Rock Island track on Old Hickory rd., at New Lenox, could become that or turned into housing for industry.

At the meeting of the New Lenox village board last week Trustee Chester Bowman introduced the subject after two pastors, representing the New Lenox Ministerial Association, suggested that the village needs a community center.

Bowman said that Richard Norris, of Norris Electric Co., Joliet, now holds the controlling interest in the building, having bought out the other creditors. These creditors, incidentally, are individuals and firms who had liens against the property for materials or services furnished.

The building project was intended to house a bowling alley, meeting place and recreation center for the village. The building was erected on land that had been the property of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. A corporation was formed, separate from the New Lenox VFW post, to build and operate the facilities but the project was never completed for lack of money, it was explained. What is there is a shell. The roof and walls enclose 22,000 square feet of floor space.

Interviewed by a representative of the New Lenox Press, Mr. Norris said he has been talking with wood-working firm that is interested in leasing a portion of the building. The firm would have 27 employees, he said. He also indicated his willingness to sell the property to the village for a community center.

The lien holders had approximately $164,000 tied up in the building but every indication is that it could be purchased at a lesser figure.

The Rev. James Harper, of Grace Episcopal church, and the Rev. Gilbert Shubert, of St. Jude Catholic church, were at the meeting of the village board last week. The SIDEWALK SUPERINTENDENTS are a part of most construction projects and in this case they are the members of the kindergarten class -- A Mokena Woman's club project -- taught by Mrs. Robert Watson at the Methodist church. The church is only a couple of blocks from where work was going on on the village water main extension project and the sounds of the ditch-digging and ditch-filling machines was too much for the youngsters' curiosity. They just had to see what was going on. There are 25 in the class. (Graphic Newspapers photo)

Rainbow Council Buys 755 Acre Tract For Boy Scout Camp

Robert E. Leckrone, president of the Rainbow Council, Boy Scouts of America, announces that the Council has just purchased a 755 acre tract of land which will be developed as a Scout camp for the Boy Scout membership in Will, Kankakee, and Grundy Goose Lake Recreational area in co-operation with the Peabody Coal Co. The property is located in Grundy county, south of the Lorenzo road and several miles west of the Dresden nuclear power plant. Parts of the property border on the Mazon river.

Mr. Leckrone stated that the camp development committee headed by Morton H. Hollingsworth, has been actively in search of a suitable camp for several years. The population expansion as indicated in the growth of schools and in the growth of Scouting membership in this area has made the present camping facilities inadequate for present and future use. A number of troops have been forced to use camps operated by other Councils each year for the past several years.

The site has been inspected and approved by the National Engineering Service, which has also developed a map and long-range plan for this specific site. They have assured the council that the site will meet its needs for many years to come.

The area contains three separate lakes, one of which is 1 1/4 miles long. The area abounds in wild life which includes a herd of deer, beaver, muskrat, fox, coon, and all types of bird life native to this section of the country. The Mazon river is widely known as one of the best areas for fossil hunters. The lakes will afford a full aquatic program, including swimming, boating, and canoeing.

The site will be used not only as a long term summer camp, but will be utilized thruout the year for week-end and short term camping. It will also be a training center for both boys and adult leaders twelve months of the year. Cub Scout recreational areas will be one of the features of the development of the camp.

It is planned to liquidate the 93 acre camp property located near Custer Park and the 100 acres which are presently being used as a camp near Morris. Camp Thiskiki and the Worrell Farm will be retained and improvements made on each to enhance Scoutings' camping program.

Stanley Schieber, chairman of the council finance committee stated that tentative plans are to conduct a capital development finance campaign in the early part of 1967 to raise the monies needed for the purchase of the land and the development of the facilities.

The architectural firm of Kruegel, Healy, & Moore has been selected to develop plans and supervise the construction of the various facilities. They will work closely with the National Engineering Service.

Although many people feel they have a black thumb, beautiful house plants can be grown if a few basic rules are followed.

The most important rule is that of proper watering. Many mistakes are made in this respect. Thoroughness is the key. Many home gardeners water their plants daily with small amounts of water instead of watering them when the soil is dry and soaking the soil all the way through. A thoroughly watered pot will have a small amount of water trickling through the drainage hole into the supporting saucer. Thorough overhead watering in this fashion helps to develop good root distribution throughout the pot. Then, if you are away and cannot care for your plants, they are better prepared to stand the emergency.

It is important to use tepid water while watering house plants. Water at room temperature is ideal. Cold water is not absorbed by the plant as well and therefore does not readily carry some of the important fertilizer elements into the plant. This is especially true of iron. Certain plants like azaleas and gardenias are touchy in this respect. They need more iron than most plants.

Proper fertilization is also important. It is better to feed house plants a small amount of fertilizer often, rather than a large amount less often. This is just the opposite of watering recommendation. Most commercial house plant fertilizers are designed to be applied weekly. Continual fertilizer application is far more beneficial than the system of fertilizing with greater amounts about once a month. House plants fertilized in this fashion grow more evenly and are less subject to shock.

The position of the plant in the room is important too. Most flowering plants require a bright sunny window. However, the many succulent plants and certain foliage plants will often tolerate a darker exposure. Watch out for sudden cool temperatures or any changes in temperature. This condition may be found near a door that is opened frequently or near a radiator or register. During severe cold spells, even plants placed on window sills can become chilled or frozen. As a precaution it is often a good idea to tilt a pane of glass against the inside window pane and thus give an extra insulating barrier between the intense temporary cold of a sub zero evening.

Follow these basic rules and you'll find that your black thumb will become a luxuriant green.

WELCOME WAGON

Each year Joliet Federal moves ahead in strength, solidarity and size. Each year new goals are attained and new objectives set. And each year, we are able to offer our savers and borrowers additional security, service and confidence. Our size and solidarity enable Joliet Federal to meet the rapidly changing nature of our economic climate. We have been geared to meet these changes -- to adjust to the times.

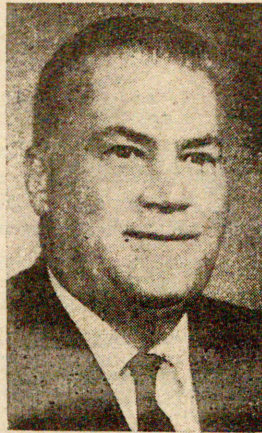

The solid foundation, the conservative principles, the tried and proven standards of business influencing the decisions of our directors have been established to guide the association steadily through the years with goals based on long rather than short term objectives. And yet, there has always been enough flexibility to cope with the changes as they came along. So it is that Joliet Federal has become synonymous with safety, while at the same time, paying the highest possible, earnings consistent with sound business principals. There is no paradox in a conservative foundation sustaining a progressive organization. This, in fact, is the only successful architecture for a business organization with management seeking to provide the safety, growth and the maximum flexibility while providing the finest, most modern services. This is the only practical blueprint for assuring you -- our savers, borrowers and investors -- of continued sound growth and progress in the years ahead.

For Safer DRIVING

BY RONALD STOPKA

Director of Driver Education Lincoln - Way High School

Winter doubles traffic troubles! One way to find out if your car is in good condition is to try to start it on a really cold day. A weak battery or summer oil in a motor that needs a tune-up will keep your car in the garage or drive instead of on the way.

Plan ahead for cold weather driving! Remember, a failure thruout village and surrounding area caused by auto striking power pole on Southwest Highway near 123rd st. Firemen remained on emergency stand by until power was restored to village.

cold motor must be in top condition and have a well charged battery to start on a frigid morning. If you have anticipated motor troubles before the temperature drops, it saves you frustration and delay.

In winter driving, daylight hours are shorter and traction and visibility are reduced. If you are to avoid that winter smashup you must ease up in a freeze up. Be sure to make your turns and stops with caution. Remember, the other drivers on the road are faced with the same winter driving problems that confront you.

"Watch out for the other cars," is good advice in all kinds of weather. On icy roads and in stormy weather, watching for other cars on the road is an absolute necessity. Remember, the "other drivers" are also having their troubles with OLD MAN WINTER.

Start slow on snow and ice is the best rule for safe winter driving. Don't spin your wheels. It only melts the ice or snow under your tires and reduces your traction. If your wheels start to spin when you try to start, ease off on the gas.

New Phone Numbers
 Slated For Spring

Telephone: 479-3521

Come spring the Illinois Bell Telephone Co. will be passing out some new numbers among Mokena subscribers.

The company avoids number changes as much as possible but to modernize Mokena equipment so as to provide intercept service to all Mokena customers it is necessary to change some numbers.

This intercept service allows operators to be au-tomatically brought in on calls to phones where the party has moved. The same operator service will be available on request to Mokena customers who are required to be away from home for extended periods of time, it was stated.

Those getting new numbers will find them listed in the new spring edition of the telephone directory, scheduled for delivery at the time of the change. Special operators will make sure that people calling your present number after the change will be given the correct one.

For instance, after the equipment change is made the telephone numbers at the Mokena News-Bulletin will be 479-9451 and 479-9321 instead of the present numbers, 479-4151 and 479-

Arbury Hills

Boy Scouts Begin Paper Collection

MRS. EDWARD HOVI
Telephone: 479-5740

The Boy Scouts of the Summit Hill Troop #10 are happy to have received permission from the school board to again use the garage at the old school to store their newspapers from the paper drives until enough have collected to bring a truck out.

The boys will, therefore, begin their monthly newspaper drives again on the first Saturday of each month beginning on Saturday morning, February 5.

This should please the residents of Arbury Hills, who have stated their disappointment when the monthly paper drives were discontinued. It is good to know that each one of us can contribute to a worthy cause, such as the Boy Scouts, without actually reaching into our pockets.

The boys decided to collect discarded Christmas trees as a safety measure to remove a fire hazard, and turn it into an evening of fun.

The trees were brought to the empty field behind the home of the scoutmaster, Joe Arcuri, and, while Mr. Arcuri supervised, a bonfire was started and a weiner roast ensued with hot chocolate and marshmallows.

The impromptu bonfire gave the boys an opportunity to wish a fond farewell to Randy Mann, one of their fellow scouts, who is moving from the area for some two years to enable his father to complete a training course in Chicago.

The boys are considering making this tree collection an annual affair, since the garbage collection truck does not have the room to remove all the discarded trees.

There is still more available room in the troop for additional boys. Registrations are now being made for interested boys from the age of eleven years up, who reside within the school district. If you are interested in participating, contact Mr. Arcuri at 479-5030.

The Cadette Girl Scout Troop is in the midst of their crafts program. They meet each Tuesday evening at the scout house on 191st st.

Girls in the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades are eligible to join in the activities with the girls. Any girls interested in the program, please contact either Mrs.

Daniel Markowski at 479-5041 or Mrs. George Burt at 479-5958.

The troop of fourth grade Junior Girl Scouts, under the leadership of Mrs. Dorothy Dickerson and Mrs. Evelyn King will receive their welcome into Juniors officially and be presented with their girl scout pins by the Junior Scout Troop #103, the troop of Mrs. Mary Harris and Mrs. Alice Chesnut, this afternoon at the school in a simple joint ceremony.

Plan Classes For Advanced First Aid

Red Cross will begin soon a series of classes in advanced first aid to meet an unusual demand for the training on the part of people throughout the county.

First two classes will begin next week. Mrs. Mary Shepley will be the instructor for the group meeting Tuesday, January 18, at Will County Red Cross headquarters, 222 N. Broadway. The class will be in session from 7 to 10 p.m. on Tuesday nights.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley T. Ekedahl will have charge of a class beginning Wednesday, Jan. 19, in Oakview school, New Lenox. Hours will be from 7 to 9:30 p.m. Other classes scheduled so far will be in Lockport opening on Thursday, Jan. 20, with James Bankroff as instructor and in Romeoville, beginning on Monday,

Mr. Webster, the superintendent of the school, is issuing a callout for additional help during the lunch hour at the school. With the cold weather upon us, there are many more children staying at school for the lunch hour.

Mothers, if you are able to help out at lunch time, please contact Mr. Webster at the school at 479-5910.

Those people who attend the Parent Teacher Group meeting at the school this evening at 8 p.m. will be given a special treat.

Mrs. Laura Gilbert, the fifth grade teacher, will present a lecture and slides on her European trip last summer. Mrs. Gilbert spent last summer on an educational tour of the European continent. Those who have had an opportunity to see the slides previously promise an interesting evening for all who attend.

The Arbury Hills Civic Association will hold their January meeting at the school on Tuesday evening, January 25, at 8 p.m. This is the annual election meeting as set down by the by-laws of the organization.

The nominating committee is presently working diligently to set up a slate of nominations prior to the meeting.

The First Nighters met last week at the home of Mrs. Roy Sipin on Birch ave. The winner of the hostesses prize was a newcomer to the group, Mrs. Frank Louis. The next meeting of the ladies will be held at the home of Mrs. Evelyn King on Beechnut Drive on Thursday, Feb. 3 at 8 p.m.

All our sympathy goes out to the Nuemayer family on the loss of their eldest boy, Herb, Jr. As any mother knows all too well, you never have enough children that you can spare one; they are all much too important.

Will Co. GOP To Elect Delegates

Will county delegates and alternates to the Illinois state Republican conference in Springfield Jan. 28 and 29 will be elected at a Will county Republican central committee meeting tonight, (Jan. 13).

According to Thomas Feehan, county GOP chairman, the meeting will be held at 8 p.m. in the Terrace Room of the Woodruff hotel, Joliet.

All county committeemen will be represented, Feehan indicated. GOP committeemen unable to attend will be represented by proxy vote.

Conference delegates to be voted on have been nominated from all areas of the county. With 25 delegates to be selected, the same number of "executive districts" have been established with the precinct committeemen of each nominating one candidate.

"Under this system we feel the entire county will be well represented at this important state conference," Feehan emphasized. An average of eight precincts are included in each of the districts with the candidate from each being determined by a vote of the district's Republican committeemen.

Under rules for the state conference which were drafted in late October, Will county is allowed one delegate for each 1,000 votes cast in the April 1964 primary election.

Purpose of the state conference is to recommend candidates for state offices in the June primary election.

All Republican candidates for state office are eligible to appear before the delegates to present their qualifications and platforms.

In offices where only two candidates are competing for the party nod, a two-thirds vote of the delegates will be required to constitute a recommendation. Where more than two candidates are competing, a 60 per cent vote is needed.

MAP SHOWS the state-approved route (heavy line) of the proposed new freeway which would extend from Interstate 80, east of Joliet, to a junction with another freeway at Grayslake in Lake County beyond Alternate 30.

Lincoln-Way Takes Two Games Over The Week-End

BY TOM SCARTH

The Knights of Lincoln-Way got back on the winning trail last week by pulling the rug from under the feet of the Rich East Rockets 81 to 69. Then in a Saturday non-conference bout the Knights defeated Peotone 60 to 48 at Peotone.

The win over Rich East continued a home game winning streak now at 14 games and even more than that, it put the Knights right back in the thick of things for the Southwest Suburban Conference crown. Homewood-Flossmoor is in first with a 4-1 record but Lincoln-Way, Rich East, Carl Sandburg and Oak Lawn are bunched not far behind with record of 3-2.

The Rich game saw the Knights jump to an early 22 to 15 first period lead. Then came that unforgettable second period when the Knights increased their lead by 18 points due mostly to the one-two punch of Mike Seitzinger and Keith Schram both of whom scored in the double figures of 22 and 26.

In the third period, there was very little change in the scoring but the fourth saw the nets parted with 59 points, 32 of which were scored by the Rockets and 27 for the Knights. All five of the L-W starters scored in double figures, forward Karl Warning dropped in 13 points and ace playmaker Bill Stanfill scored 12 points. Dave Eden who exited the game thru personal fouls late in the third period but was still capable of contributing 10 points.

At Peotone, the Knights showed that they are capable of attaining a lead and holding it on a foreign court. In the first period the Knights out scored the Blue Devils 13 to 8.

During the second period the Knights were able to increase their lead by four more points to give them a half time advantage of 29 to 20.

The third period saw the Peotone quintet out score the Knights 13 to 11 and cut the lead to eight points going into the final stanza.

The Knights played their usual consistent ball game in the fourth period and were able to again out score Peotone 20 to 15 for a final score of 60 to 48.

Mike Seitzinger and Bill Stanfill led the attack with 19 points and 13 points. Jim and Gary Clausing sparked the Blue Devils with 11 and 10 points respectively.

The Sophomore Knights swept a double victory over the week-end with a 69-50 win over Rich and a 41 to 38 overtime decision against Peotone. Tomorrow the Knights host Evergreen Park. The Sophomore game begins at 6:30 p.m. and the varsity at 8:00 p.m.

Eagle Boosters Announce Donkey Basketball Game

The Sandburg Eagle Booster club announces plans for a Donkey Basketball game to be played at 7:45 p.m., Saturday, Jan. 22, at Stagg high school, 111th and Roberts rd., Palos Hills. This game, played on the backs of live donkeys, has been a laugh hit for years.

The local Eagle Booster club, of Carl Sandburg high school, has gone to considerable expense in bringing this game to you. They have secured the services of the nationally known Crosby Donkey Ball co., Chippewa Falls, Wis., to bring their donkeys here for the exhibition.

Our local players will ride the donkeys and many are

Study Methods To Hike Corn Yields

Will and South Cook counties will join 66 other Illinois counties in a "blast-off" to higher corn yields. University of Illinois Cooperative Extension Service specialists will discuss the growth of the corn plant, advantages of early planting, ideal seedbed preparation, optimum fertility, selecting a money-making hybrid and adequate plant populations, increasing available moisture and effective insect and weed control, says Will county farm adviser, A. A. Wicklein and Cook county farm adviser, William Whiteside.

Meetings in Will and South Cook counties will be held now in serious training for the big event.

Tickets are available at Kornar Drugs, Orland Park Plaza and at Palos Sports and Hobby shop, Palos Heights. Tickets will be handled by the Varsity club during the lunch periods at Sandburg and Stagg high schools. President V. E. Broman, GI 8-7062, membership chairman; G. E. Aronson, GI 8-3810; and T. C. Pnizek, GI 8-2629, may also be contacted for tickets.

Jan. 20 and Jan. 27 at Francis 4-H Field. Look for additional notices in this paper. Posters calling your attention to "Corn Countdown" will appear in the agribusinesses of Will and South Cook county.

Knowing how the corn plant grows is important when you start relating rates of fertilizer and amounts of moisture to critical times in the plant's life, says Wicklein. Moisture is usually more plentiful in mid-July than in August, so early planting usually insures better pollination -- and better seed set -- than later planting.

Research proves that moisture is one of the main limiting factors in corn production at some period in most years. Minimum tillage helps to conserve moisture and reduces the cost of production because it reduces trips across the field. Yields from minimum-tilled and conventionally tilled corn are about the same.

Vigorous hybrids that withstand high plant populations and high fertility will be discussed, as well as narrow rows and single-plant hills and multiple-plant hills, says Whiteside.

Entomologists will discuss insect controls, including a review of resistance of the northern corn rootworm and the southwestern corn borer and other insects that are giving corn producers trouble. Weed specialists will discuss the combination of herbicides that will provide most effective weed control and also herbicides for use in fertilizer carriers.

All "Corn Countdown", as well as other extension meetings, are open to the public.

FROM CONGRESS

Last week I started the story of my South American trip, and we had gone as far as Lima, Peru. In Peru we saw, firsthand, the use of some of U.S. Surplus property.

At a mission school and later at the Army Industrial school we saw the use of surplus hand machine tools, music instruments and vehicles. The Army in Peru appears to engage in social welfare activities, including a colonization program, in an effort to open new frontiers in the undeveloped interior of their country.

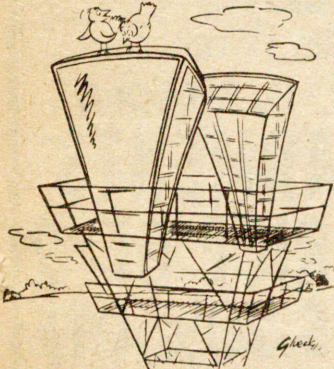

The next stop on our trip was Santiago, Chile. The flight from Lima to Santiago

1966 ACP Sign-Up Underway

Charles Deutschman, chairman of the Will county ASC committee, announced that Will county farmers may now file requests for 1966 agricultural conservation program (ACP) practices. Applications should be made at the Will county ASCS office, 1256 West Jefferson, Joliet. Practices which were recently approved for this county include pasture development, limestone and rock phosphate, sod waterways, tile outlets, erosion control structures, winter cover seeding, contouring, fish ponds and others.

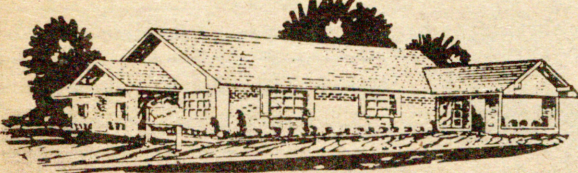

In order to earn cost-share assistance, a producer must file an official request before the practice is started. An approval will then be issued by the county committee and the work completed within a specified time. Altho the basic sign-up period extends from now thru Feb. 11, requests will be accepted throughout the year, as long as funds are available.

Last year, 381 farmers in Will county established conservation measures as a part of the ACP. Farmers interested may call at the county office for further details.

took us over the Andes Mountains, and Santiago itself is surrounded on three sides by the snow-capped peaks of the Andes.

A highlight of the tour was the invitation by President Eduardo Frei of Chile to meet with him in the Presidential Palace. For almost two hours, we discussed the Alliance for Progress and the general relationship of our country to his. My impression was that President Frei sincerely wants to have good relations with the United States. This was somewhat contrary to the impression given later that week by the Chilean delegate to the Organization of American States Foreign Ministers Conference in Rio.

In Chile, as in most of the Latin American countries we visited, we have not spent nor lent a great volume of dollars since the inception of the Alliance for Progress. Instead, I believe we have been following the wiser course of encouraging the governments of these countries to adopt monetary and budget reforms to combat inflation and poor balance of payments situations. Only when this has been done can our aid be truly helpful to them.

In addition, I was pleased to find that the majority of our aid is in the form of long-term and low-interest loans. President Frei of Chile made the valid observation that the programs to be undertaken must be generated by the local government officials and that the greatest amount of participation or support must come locally. In his words, 80% must be from the country itself and 20% from outside help.

Much of our present aid in the Alliance is in the form of technical assistance. In turn, the major portion of this technical assistance is furnished by American schools and universities under contract with the Agency for International Development.

From Chile we flew across the Andes and over miles of Argentine Pampas to Buenos Aires. I was amazed at the appearance of the pampas.

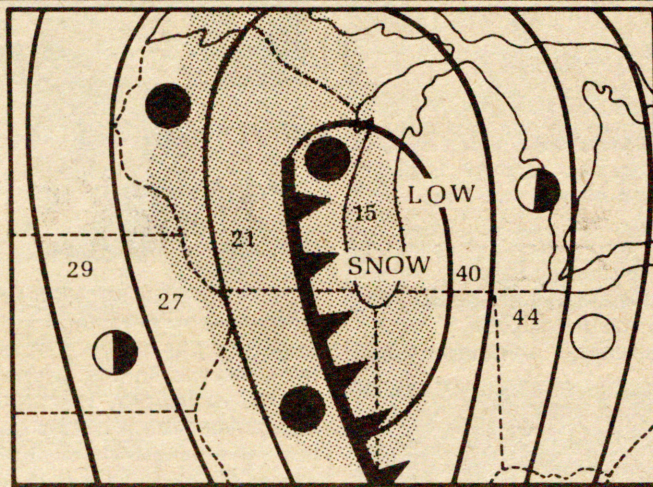

From the air, it appeared we were flying over rich midwestern farm land.

Buenos Aires is one of the largest cities in the world. With a population of almost 6 million people, it far exceeds the city of Chicago. This also was the only city we visited where the drinking water was safe to drink.

Our reception in B.A., as they call it, was one of the warmest of the entire trip. We were whisked from the airport to the capitol building where, though Congress was not then in session, some 25 Deputados, or congressmen, and a few senators had arranged a reception for us. Here I met one Deputado who spoke fairly good English. He informed me his son was an Argentine marine stationed at their embassy in Washington. Next week I will report more about our stay in Argentina.

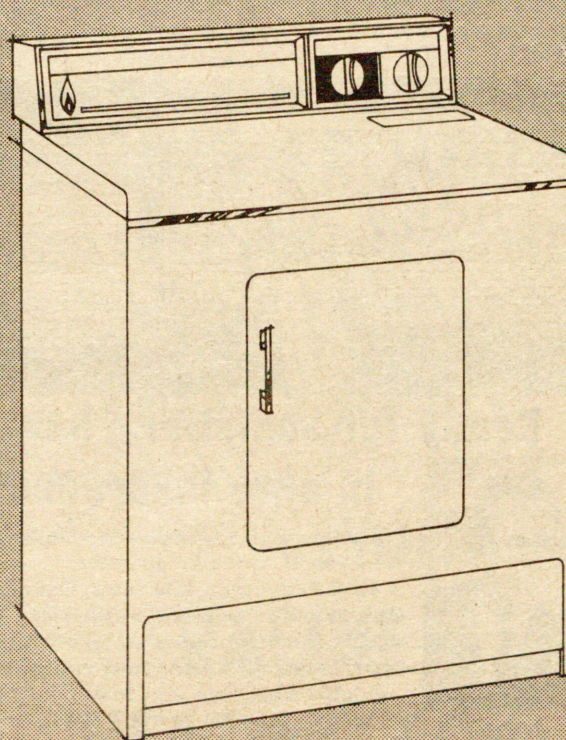

CONG. JOHN N. ERLENBORN is shown above as he met Eduardo Frei, president of Chile, during the congressman's visit to South America in November. Standing at Erlenborn's left is Representative John G. Dow, New York Democrat. President Frei is looked upon as one of the best of the new political leaders in South America, and he held a reception for the five congressmen during their visit.

Let a Gas dryer brighten the 60 most miserable days of the year.

Special trial offer.

SLEET, SNOW, WIND, RAIN—no doubt about it, we'll get our share during the next 60 days. Now's the ideal time to let a gas dryer help you ignore the weather. Take advantage of our 60-day Proof of Performance offer and learn how wonderful a gas clothes dryer can be.

Just visit any Northern Illinois Gas showroom or have one of our representatives call on you. Select the model you'd like to try for 60 days. Choose from one of these leading makes: Hamilton, Norge, Philco-Bendix, Speed Queen, Whirlpool. If you decide not to keep the dryer, we'll pick it up and refund any payments you have made. Low monthly payments can be arranged, with up to 36 months to pay.

Gas dryers dry big loads for just a penny—about one-fourth the cost of other automatics. What you save in operating costs practically pays for your dryer! Gas dryers pay other dividends, too. They're kind to your clothes; save you work, time and trouble. Try one for 60 days. It'll put spring in your step.

SLIMMING SUGGESTIONS--For the benefit of millions of Americans watching their weight, Aetna Life & Casualty has developed this series of simple, tasty meals--meals which are favorites in the insurance organization's own dining rooms. At top left, roast beef (2 slices), carrots (1/2 cup) and lettuce with a tablespoon of French dressing, form the basis of a low calorie meal filling enough for any man. Four ounces of tomato juice is the appetizer and a half-cantaloupe is dessert. Together these foods provide only 365 calories. A meal even lower in calories (345) is built around two generous slices of roast chicken, a medium tomato and a half-cup of asparagus. The meal is introduced with 6 oz. of consommé (not shown) and topped with a 2-inch slice of unfrosted angel cake. At lower left, four ounces of fruit punch whets appetites for baked file of sole, a medium tomato, a half-cup of turnip and a 2-inch piece of sponge cake. This meal provides 375 calories. At lower right, a 350-calorie meal includes 4 oz. of jellied consommé, 3 oz. of roast veal, a half-cup each of winter squash and cauliflower and a plain gelatin dessert with a tablespoon of whipped cream. Plain coffee or tea with lemon are included in the calorie count for each meal.

College Group Plans Family Night Program

Students of Trinity Christian college, Palos Heights, will present the program for the monthly Family Night to be held at the Community Center Foundation, Southwest Highway at 127th Street, Palos Park on Wednesday, January 19, at 8:00 p.m. The program will include skits, readings, folk songs, and musical selections.

A share a dish supper precedes the program and starts at 6:45.

Students of the college took part in one of the Family Night affairs last year and are returning by popular request.

The public is invited to join in this evening of fellowship and fun. Family Nights have been held at the Community Center Foundation for many years and provide an evening when all members of families may join together for supper and entertainment.
